Flea & Tick Season. Aaaaaagggh!!!

COUPONS
INSIDE!

No need to worry. Odyssey Pets has all-natural flea & tick remedies. Wondercide offers relief from common household pests such as fleas, as well as ticks, ants, roaches, spiders and hundreds of other insects. Not only are Wondercide's products safe and effective, they're eco-friendly too. EVOLV™ is a superior, all natural flea and tick treatment for dogs and cats.

Also available is Lumino Diatomaceous Earth. A natural, non-toxic organic alternative to chemical flea, tick & parasite treatments. What is Diatomaceous Earth? Food-grade diatomaceous earth is a naturally occurring fine organic powder composed of crushed aquatic freshwater fossils. If you are wary of putting spot-on treatments on your pet to kill fleas, then try Diatomaceous Earth. It is not a chemical - it is a desiccant, which means that it actually penetrates and dries out the waxy exoskeleton of fleas and ticks so they dehydrate. Neat, huh? It has no chemical toxicity, just a simple, naturally effective solution for parasite control. Surprisingly, it doesn't stop there. It also has been shown to eliminate hookworms, roundworms, pinworms and whipworms within one week of being fed daily. It can also be used externally, just simply rub the product into your pet's coat and fur to kill fleas, ticks and lice. Can be used on bedding and furniture as well.

Only at Odyssey
Pets

A SUPER GOOD LITTER THAT WE USE OURSELVES

Fresh & Natural Litter uses quality, natural ingredients, including Wyoming sodium bentonite clay, which gives it its excellent clumping quality. Once the clay is harvested, the topsoil is replaced and reseeded with lush, native pasture grasses, leaving the land beautiful and productive for recreation, farming or ranching. Not only is this a great product but also it is produced by an environmentally responsible company as well.

The Truth about Raw

Raw diets provide nutrition the way nature intended. Raw Frozen Diets are formulated like the ancestral diet with 95% meat, organs, and raw ground bone, 5% fruits and vegetables, and 0% grain. Dogs and cats are meat eaters by nature. A diet consisting primarily of raw meat, organ meats, bone, and fat reflects what your pets would eat in their natural habitat. Since dogs and cats are carnivorous by nature, they thrive on a diet rich in nutritious meat. When you feed your pets a biologically appropriate raw diet, they will thrive. Think about it... when you eat unprocessed & natural foods, you feel healthier and happier – you have more energy, you have fewer aches and pains, you sleep better at night, etc. Our pets are no different!

The frozen raw diets that we sell also include ground raw bone. Raw bone is an excellent source of minerals, essential fatty acids, proteins, and enzymes. They are also a balanced source of calcium and phosphorus, and a natural source of chondroitin for joint health. Certain manufacturers' diets such as Instinct Raw Frozen Diets are complete and balanced for dogs and cats, all life stages and all breeds.

Benefits and results of feeding raw are:

- Lush, glossy coat and healthy skin
- Smaller, firmer stools for less backyard cleanup
- Healthy teeth and gums for better breath (the enzymes in the food also help break down plaque and tartar!)
- Healthy energy and vitality

NATURE'S VARIETY RAW BITES

Let's face it: dry kibble is easy. Just pour and serve. Raw food may involve thawing, handling, washing, you name it. Well, compromise no more; the good people at Nature's Variety have released Instinct Raw Bites for both dogs and cats: a complete raw diet in a tiny, bite-sized form that's easy to serve, and never needs to thaw. You could even pour it right out of the bag!

Any of you who are worried about pathogens? Instinct raw diets are all cold-pressure-pasteurized which removes potentially harmful bacteria without the use of heat. Instinct Raw Bites are available in Chicken, Beef, Lamb, and Duck formulas. No excuses now. Get your dog or cat some raw!

Oops, I did it again...
